

General Library Rules & Regulations, IIIT Allahabad

Scope:

- It is an academic-cum-research library and primarily meant for faculty, research scholars, students and staff members of the institute.
- Alumnus of IIITA is allowed to use the library resources for reference purpose subject to production of alumnus ID card issued by the institute.
- Researcher belongs to relevant area of study of the institute but not associated with the institute may allowed to use library resources within the library premises subject to prior permission. He/she suppose to carry reference letter from his/her affiliating institute and an identity proof.

Opening Hours:

- Monday to Sunday & Gazetted Holiday: 9.00 AM – 10.00 PM
- Issue/return timings: 9.15 AM – 1.00 PM and 2.00 PM – 9.30 PM (Mon to Sat)
- Sunday and Gazetted Holidays library opens for reference purpose only.

Admission to the Library:

- Bonafide member of IIITA has to carry institute identity card.
- Outsider has to register his/her name and address in the “Visitor’s Register” available at the entrance of the library. Signature will be taken as an acknowledgement that the person agrees to obey all the rules of the library.

Deposite of Personal Belongings at the Property Counter:

- Personal belongings, except pocket size purses/ wallets and notebooks, must be left at the property counter.
- Users have to keep their belongings at their own risk.

Library Membership and Privileges of the Members:

- The bonafide member of the institute authenticate through LDAP is the default procedure for enrollment in library. The new member has to produce his / her admission slip / office order (must contain institute id no., name, course / post name, duly attested photo, date of joining and expiry and other necessary information) for one time validation in Library Management Software.
- Privileges of the library members:

Category	Number of Books	Duration
Faculty	15	90 Days
Ph.D. / Research Scholar	08	30 Days
P.G. Student	05	15 Days
U.G. Student	04	15 Days
Officer	05	30 Days
Other Staff	04	15 Days
Adjunct / Visiting / Guest Faculty	06	30 Days
Out Source / Project Staff	02	15 Days

- Borrowed document(s) must be returned within / on the due date mentioned in the due date slip of the document borrowed / email communicated in this regard.
- Borrower's record is maintained in the LMS database.
- Each member has to produce his / her institute ID card at Circulation Counter to issue documents.
- The member must have to present in person for any library transaction.
- The membership of students/scholars remains valid till the end of their course/fellowship.
- The librarian may recall the issued document from a member before / after the due date in case of any urgent need of the particular document. If a book needs to be put in the reserve section, it must be returned immediately.
- Books in bad condition cannot be issued till get bound and brought to usable condition.
- Reference / text books cannot be issued to any member. Books to be kept as reference / textbook collection from time to time will be decided depending upon the type of the document and as per the recommendation of the faculty members.
- Reference books (Encyclopedias, Dictionaries, Manuals, Year Books, Maps, Atlases, etc.); Journals (loose as well as bound) and Thesis / Dissertations are not for issue.
- Micro Documents (CDs, Cassettes, etc.) are also not for circulation and to be used inside the library premises.

Overdue and Reminder:

- Fine will be charged on the member for overdue books @ Rs.3/- per day per book.
- Any overdue book should be either returned or renewed. Otherwise the privilege of issuing books will be suspended.
- In the normal course of the library procedures, system generated reminders (e-mail) will be issued to the member for overdue of books from time to time. It is, however, not obligatory on the part of the library. If the borrower does not respond to the notices, his / her membership will be suspended till the return the document as well as permission of the competent authority.

- The Library may send recall notice to the member for issued document at any time, if required by some other member.
- A replacement notice will be served to the member for holding library document beyond 45 days of due date and the same will be communicated to the competent authority also. This is applicable for all library member of IITA. In case, the member unable to replace, then the following recovery norms will be applied:

i. For Indian Publishers: -

Recovery Conditions (calculated from the date of acquisition)	Recovery Amount
≤ 5 years	Double the cost of the document
≤ 10 years	Triple the cost of the document
≤ 15 years	Four times the cost of the document
> 15 years	Five times the cost of the document

ii. For Foreign Publishers: -

Recovery Conditions (calculated from the date of acquisition)	Recovery Amount (exchange rate of RBI applicable on that day)
≤ 5 years	Double the cost of the document
≤ 10 years	Triple the cost of the document
≤ 15 years	Four times the cost of the document
> 15 years	Five times the cost of the document

- Documents acquired as gratis / gift for which price is not available, the cost will be decided by library @ Rs. 1/- per page for Indian publication and @ Rs. 2/- per page for foreign publication and the recovery amount will be decided as mentioned in the above table (i) and (ii).
- In case the lost book is out-of-print and widely used, the library committee may recommend extra penalty.

Renewal of Books:

- The renewal of books can be done if there is no reservation against it. It can be ascertained from the circulation counter.
- Renewal will be allowed only after the borrowed material is produced physically at the counter.

- A book may be renewed for twice only, after that the book should be returned at least for a period of one week.

Loss/ Mutilation of Reading Materials:

- If any document is lost / disfigured / if any page or any picture is removed / the reader mutilated the document then he / she must replace it or pay as per the recovery condition mentioned above.
- If one volume of a set is damaged / lost the whole set has to be replaced, provided it is impossible on the part of the institute to purchase the lost volume.

Library No Dues:

- Borrowers are expected to return all borrowed materials before going on vacation / leave / outstation duty, if such absence from head quarter is for more than a month.
- Library member should obtain “No Dues” from library after surrendering all library documents borrowed him / her and clearing outstanding dues, if any, on completion of degree / project / contract and termination / superannuation from the institute.
- Students/ research scholars are required to clear the library dues before the announcement of their result.
- In case of demise of a member, the library dues, if any, will be communicated to the competent authority for further settlement process as applicable.

General Rules:

- All readers are required to maintain silence and discipline inside the Library.
- Proper decorum should be maintained inside the library. Eating, smoking, spitting and sleeping inside the library is strictly prohibited.
- Corrections, personal remarks, underlining, etc. on library documents are strictly prohibited.
- Librarian has the general control of the library and its services.
- The library is under the surveillance of CCTV Cameras.
- Any infringement of library rules may lead to the withdrawal of membership privileges.

Note: - Rules may be altered or amended and new rules may be incorporated by the Library/ Institute Authority in consultation with the library committee from time to time depending on the exigencies.